PAYMENT SIDE ONLY.

40 (1) Payments into Treasuries by P. W. D.

BOTH RECEIPTS AND PAYMENTS SIDE.

40 (iii) Items adjustable by Civil Department,
(iv) Items adjustable by P. W. D.
(v) Other Items.

The existing Heads noted below are cancelled :—

32 Cheques and Bills (e) P. W. Bills payable,
33 Inter Departmental Transfers
(d) P. W. D. Other Items—Items adjustable by Civil.

The Head 33 (d) Other Items P. W. D.—Items adjustable by P. W. D. will continue until further instructions are issued for the adjustment of all items pertaining to the period prior to 1st March 1947. A statement of such credits may be sent to the P. W. Auditor, along with the monthly accounts for transmission to the Comptroller.

3. Payments into the Treasury by the P. W. D. All sums paid into the Treasury by the officers of the P. W. Department, or by others on their behalf, either on account of revenue or other receipts, including P. W. Deposits and Advances, will be credited to the Treasury accounts under this head. These remittances will be classified in the Divisional cash book under the respective final heads such as "XIX Civil Works," "P. W. D.—Deposits" "Objection Book Advances—P.W.D." etc., and incorporated in the compiled accounts of the Division through the General Abstract book. After the close of the month, the total of the credits under these heads in the cash book will be taken to the adjustment book by debiting the head "40 (i) Payments into Treasury by P. W. Officers" and crediting under the heading "Revenue and other heads" concerned. (Vide similar procedure prescribed in the case of P. W. Bills in para 511 of M. P. W. A. C.)

4. A Consolidated Treasury Receipt will be prepared for the remittances made during the month and sent to the P. W. Auditor with the monthly accounts, with the certificate of the Treasury Officer. This will be accompanied by a Reconciliation memo agreeing the departmental figures with the Treasury figures.

5. Pass Orders. P. W. Work bills payable by means of pass orders as well as the passed recoupment bills will be classified in the Divisional accounts under the new head "40 Remittances II (a) P. W. Bills Payable" instead of "32 (e) P. W. Bills payable" from 1st March 1947.

6. Firms' bills. All bills of firms and of Government Industrial Concerns which are payable after preaudit under the existing rules, will be sent to the P.W. Auditor for arranging payment by means of cheques or drafts. Payments arranged will be intimated to the Executive Engineers for incorporation in the Divisional accounts. These items will be adjusted under a new head "40 (v) Other Items—P. W. D."

7. Salary, Establishment, T. A. etc., Bills. The existing procedure regarding the preparation, drawal and encashment of preaudit of bills relating to Salary, Establishment, T. A. and Contingencies will continue. The payments on account of these bills will not be adjusted in the Divisional accounts.

8. Inter Departmental Transactions. All transactions now booked under—

33 (d) P. W. D. Other Items,
(i) Items adjustable by Civil,
(ii) Do P. W. D.

will hereafter be adjusted through the New Heads.

40 (iii) Items adjustable by Civil,
(iv) Do P. W. D.

These instructions apply to all fresh transactions emanating from 1st March 1947. The previous debits and credits as on that date will be adjusted through the old heads alone which will be indicated in the advices sent by the Audit Office. The transfers between the P. W. Department and other Departments like Railways, Education and Jog will continue to be adjusted under the present Exchange Heads 34, 35 and 38 Account Current between Civil and these Departments.

9. The Remittance schedules will be sent in duplicate as heretofore giving full particulars of all transactions and connected vouchers, with authority for each item of charge debited.

10. The existing arrangement under which the transaction between the P. W. and Electrical Departments are being adjusted on cash basis will remain unaffected.

11. Inter Divisional Transfers. All transfers between one P.W. Division and another will continue to be adjusted in the Divisional Accounts under the existing Head "33 (a) Inter Divisional Transfers (1) Public Works."

12. The Auditor, P. W. Department, may be addressed regarding any doubtful points in this circular.

13. A copy of the instructions issued to the Treasuries in the matter is also enclosed for reference.

14. These changes do not apply to the P. W. Divisions at Jog which are under the Jog Audit Circle.
